

No. 3 of 2013

REPORT AND DETERMINATION OF THE REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL
TRAVELLING AND ACCOMMODATION ALLOWANCES
MINISTERS OF THE CROWN AND OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

A. REPORT

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Section 4(1)(c) of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990 (SA) confers jurisdiction on the Remuneration Tribunal to determine from time to time electorate allowances and other allowances and expenses for Members of Parliament.
- 1.2 Section 3 of the Remuneration Act 1990 defines such allowances and expenses as remuneration, and section 8(2) of the Act requires the Tribunal to review previous determinations of remuneration under this Act at least once in each year.
- 1.3 The last determination covering these matters was Determination and Report No. 4 of 2012, issued in June 2012.
- 1.4 Section 10(2) of the Remuneration Act 1990 requires that before making a determination affecting the remuneration of a particular person, or persons of a particular class, the Tribunal must allow that person, or persons of that class, a reasonable opportunity to make submissions.
- 1.5 In accordance with legislative provisions, the Tribunal wrote to the Premier and the Leader and Deputy Leader of the Opposition on 28 May 2013, and to Ministers and all other Members of Parliament on 29 May 2013. The Tribunal's correspondence advised that it intended to review Determination 4 of 2012, and invited written submissions for its consideration.

2. Travelling and Accommodation Allowances for Ministers and the Leader and Deputy Leader of the Opposition

- 2.1 This allowance provides financial assistance to Ministers and the Leader and Deputy Leader of the Opposition for travel and accommodation expenses involved in travelling in an official capacity both within South Australia and interstate.

- 2.2 Having regard to the increased travelling and accommodation allowances granted to the South Australian Public Sector and to Judges, Court Officers and Statutory Officers, the Tribunal is of the view that justification exists to increase these allowances.
- 2.3 The Tribunal has therefore determined to provide equivalent increases to the travelling and accommodation allowances for Ministers of the Crown, the Leader of the Opposition and the Deputy Leader of the Opposition, to operate on and from 1 July 2013.

3. Country Members Accommodation Allowance

- 3.1 This allowance provides financial assistance to a Member of either House of Parliament whose usual place of residence is more than 75 kilometres by road (by the most direct route) from the Adelaide GPO, and who is required to stay in Adelaide overnight in order to attend to either parliamentary duties or the Member's duty to be actively involved in community affairs.
- 3.2 Having regard to increases in hotel accommodation prices, and increased accommodation allowances granted to the South Australian Public Sector and to Judges, Court Officers and Statutory Officers, the Tribunal is of the view that justification exists to increase the Country Members Accommodation Allowance.
- 3.3 Consequently, the Tribunal has determined to provide equivalent increases to the accommodation allowances for Country Members of Parliament, to operate on and from 1 July 2013.
- 3.4 The Tribunal received submissions that the existing Country Members Accommodation Allowance is unfair to a Member who lives outside Metropolitan Adelaide, but less than 75 kilometres from the GPO, and who is similarly required to stay overnight in Adelaide to attend to parliamentary duties or community duties as a Member of Parliament. These submissions argued that it is not acceptable to expect any Member living outside Metropolitan Adelaide to drive to his or her place of residence after long and late parliamentary sittings, or meetings that finish late at night at a significant distance from where the Member resides.
- 3.5 The Tribunal has acknowledged the potential hazards faced by a Member who lives outside Metropolitan Adelaide but within a 75 kilometre radius in the context of the situations described above, and accordingly the relative unfairness such a Member faces compared to those who qualify for the existing Country Members Accommodation Allowance. In the circumstances, the Tribunal has determined to vary the Country Members Accommodation Allowance to provide an accommodation allowance of up to $218 per day for a Member whose permanent residence is outside Metropolitan Adelaide but within 75 kilometres of the GPO. The allowance will only be payable when the Member elects to stay in commercial accommodation in lieu of returning to their residence due to parliamentary duties or commitments in the community as a Member of Parliament. The annual amount payable will also be limited to fifteen accommodation nights.
